

ARIZONA EAST ASIAN STUDIES SHOWCASE

A Joint UA-ASU Workshop

This first of its kind workshop will highlight cutting-edge interdisciplinary research on East Asia from across the state of Arizona. Featuring over 25 speakers from the University of Arizona and Arizona State University, this workshop will showcase the depth and variety of scholarship on China, Japan, and Korea taking place in Arizona and foster a spirit of collaboration between our campuses. The workshop is open to all members of our campus communities and will include talks in fields ranging from anthropology to film studies, history, linguistics, and religious studies.

Panel One: Narrative and Memory in East Asian Cultures (Friday, 12:30 – 2:00 pm)

Panel Two: Print, Politics, and Performance in Historical East Asia (Friday, 2:30 – 4:00 pm)

Panel Three: Media Flows in Contemporary East Asia (Saturday, 10:00 – 11:30 am)

Roundtable Discussion: More-than-Asian Studies and Environmental Humanities (Saturday, 12:30 – 1:30 pm)

Panel Four: New Horizons in East Asian Languages and Linguistics (Saturday, 2:00 – 3:30 pm)

Friday, January 26th, 12:00 PM – 5:00 PM & Saturday, January 27th, 10:00 AM – 4:00 PM

Location: Environment and Natural Resources 2 Building (ENR2) Room S215

INFO: eas.arizona.edu

This event is made possible by the generous support of the following co-sponsors:

