

THE UNIVERSITY OF ARIZONA
COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES

East Asian Studies

ARIZONA IN KYOTO INFORMATION SESSION

Study Abroad in Kyoto Next Summer 2025!

Interested in studying abroad in Japan? The Department of East Asian Studies will be leading the Arizona in Kyoto Study Abroad program next summer 2025! Learn more about Arizona in Kyoto, course offerings, program costs, cultural experiences, and more at our information session. Please bring any questions you may have—we look forward to helping you plan your journey to Japan!

Kyoto, the former capital of Japan for over a millennium, is the heart and soul of the nation's cultural traditions. Students will explore a variety of aspects of the city, delve into the rich culture of Kyoto, and discover how Japan's enormously influential culture took root and flourished. Past program excursions have included visits to the International Manga Museum, a sake brewery, a Hanshin Tigers baseball game, and one of Osaka's famous fish markets. This is a can't-miss opportunity to immerse yourself in Japan's history and culture!

Date: Wednesday, November 20th, 2024

Time: 3:30 PM – 4:30 PM

Location: Learning Services Building, Room 107