

COLLEGE OF HUMANITIES
Center for East Asian Studies

FREE and open to the public. All are welcome!

JOIN US FOR AN EXCLUSIVE TALK WITH LUCY CRAFT, FORMER PRODUCER AND REPORTER FOR CBS NEWS,
BASED IN TOKYO, JAPAN!

Lucy will share her experiences on:

- Working in Japan
- Leveraging Japanese language skills and a background in international studies
- Building a career in the global media industry

Q&A Session: Don't miss this chance to ask Lucy your questions and get insights into the world of international journalism and media! Spread the word and come prepared to learn from a seasoned journalist with a global perspective!

When: Monday, Nov. 25th, 11:30 am - 12:30 pm

Where: Learning Services Bldg (LSB) 346

Since 2005, Lucy Craft has been a TV/radio reporter and producer focusing on politics, economy, and culture in Asia for the Tokyo Bureau of CBS News, a major American broadcaster. From 1982-2004, she was a Tokyo-based freelance reporter-producer. Her stories have been broadcast on NPR, PBS, and BBC and published in Nikkei Shimbun, The Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, and National Geographic. Earlier in her career, Ms. Craft worked for the State News Service, The Washington Star newspaper, And United Press International, with stints as a wire service reporter, editorial assistant, and freelance reporter.

INFO: ceas.arizona.edu